Ad Text In a recent interview, Barack Obama said that not bombing Syria “required the most political courage”. He said that sending troops to Syria was a very difficult decision, but not bombing Syria was even harder to make. Obama was hated for not taking actions, but it’s better for being hated for not killing innocent people than for starting a useless war.
Though it was tough, Obama did a great job keeping away from the war that would take millions from the US budget and get innocent people killed. Unfortunately, the recent government didn’t think twice, before they started bombing Syria. They will cut the support of Black families in the US to kill innocent kids in Syria. How did we come to this?!
